My Way to Olympia

July 9, 7:30 pm; July 10, 9:00 am & 3:00 pm; July 12, 12:00 noon

WHO BETTER TO COVER THE PARALYMPICS, the international sporting event for athletes with physical and intellectual disabilities, than Niko von Glasow, the world's best-known disabled filmmaker? Unfortunately – or fortunately for anyone seeking an insightful and funny documentary – this filmmaker frankly hates sports and thinks the games are "a stupid idea." Born with severely shortened arms, von Glasow serves as an endearing guide to London's Paralympics competition. As he meets a one-handed Norwegian table tennis player, the Rwandan sitting volleyball team, a Greek paraplegic boccia player and an American archer without arms (Matt Stutzman, pictured), his own stereotypes about disability and sports are delightfully punctured. (Photo: Niko von Glasow.)
