Annual EEO Public File Report Bangor Station Employment Unit

The purpose of this EEO Public File Report (“Report”) is to comply with Section 73.2080(c)(6) of the FCC’s EEO Rule. This report was prepared on behalf of the Station Employment Unit of WMEH-FM, and is required to be placed in the public inspection file of this station, and posted on its Web site, if it has a Web site.

The information contained in this Report covers the time period beginning December 1, 2008 to and including November 30, 2009 (the “Applicable Period”).

The FCC’s EEO Rule requires that this Report contain the following information:

1. A list of all full-time vacancies filled by the Station(s) comprising the Station Employment Unit during the Applicable Period;
2. For each such vacancy, the recruitment source(s) utilized to fill the vacancy (including, if applicable, organizations entitled to notification pursuant to Section 73.2080(c) (I)(ii) of the new EEO Rules, which should be separately identified), identified by name, address, contact person and telephone number as available;
3. The recruitment source that referred the hiree for each full-time vacancy during the Applicable Period;
4. Data reflecting the total number of persons interviewed for full-time vacancies during the Applicable Period and the total number of persons interviewed of interviewees referred by each recruitment source utilized in connection with such vacancies; and
5. A list and brief description of the initiatives undertaken pursuant to Section 73.208(c)(2) of the EEO Rule.

Attachments 1, 2 and 3, which follow have been designed, in the aggregate, to provide the required information. Please note that the numbers listed on Attachment 2 under the column entitled “Full-Time Positions for Which This Source was Utilized” refer to the number of the full-time job positions listed on Attachment 1.

For purposes of this Report, a vacancy was deemed “filled” not when the offer was extended but when the hiree accepted the job offer. A person was deemed “interviewed” whether he or she was interviewed in person, over the telephone or by e-mail.

Section 3: Prong 3 Outreach Initiatives

of the community in acquiring skills needed for broadcast employment:

A University of Southern Maine student completed an unpaid 14-hour per week internship in News & Public Affairs in April of 2009. The internship earned this student three university credits for gathering phone and field audio, assisting reporters as needed, conducting research, and providing some Web news content updates. This internship supported the Bangor and Portland SEUs.

A Tufts University student entering his senior year completed a full-time, unpaid, seven-week internship with the MPBN Web Team during the summer months of 2009. This internship focused on posting news and other content updates to the MPBN Web site each day covering the areas of radio, television, "Experience" magazine and the mpbn.net lifelong learning service. The intern also participated in capturing audio at special on- and off-site events promoting MPBN and its goals. This internship supported the Augusta / Lewiston, Bangor and Portland SEUs.

A student from Bowdoin College completed a full-time, unpaid internship working with our radio classical music host on promotion and programming of a summer music festival series over roughly eight weeks during the summer of 2009. She conducted and recorded interviews, and produced brief programs to promote the music festival series events held throughout Maine and Atlantic Canada. This internship supported the Bangor and Portland SEUs.

A student from the University of Southern Maine completed a 14-hour per week, unpaid internship in the News & Public Affairs Department, participating in daily radio and periodic television news operations making telephone calls and collecting information on audio for news reporting purposes. This internship supported the Augusta / Lewiston, Bangor and Portland SEUs.

Establishment of an internship program designed to assist members of the community to acquire skills needed for broadcast employment.

A recent graduate of the University of Edinburgh completed a seven-week internship in the fundraising area of the organization concentrating on a quick study of the radio, television, Internet and education aspects of our business in order to develop a case statement for a planned capital fundraising campaign to support our not-for-profit organization. This internship supported the Augusta / Lewiston, Bangor and Portland SEUs.

Listing of each upper-level category opening in a job bank or newsletter of media trade groups whose membership includes substantial participation of women and minorities:

No listings are reported as this SEU had no job vacancies and no hires during the reporting period.

Participation in events or programs sponsored by educational institutions relating to career opportunities in broadcasting:

On March 18, 2009, representing the Bangor and Portland SEUs, our Deputy Director of News & Public Affairs hosted a student from Greeley High School in a job shadow of her duties in radio news gathering, reporting, assignments to and supervision of our staff of news reporters.

Representing the Bangor and Portland SEUs, one of our radio News Producers spoke to a class of 100 at the New England School of Communications on March 19, 2009 about journalism, news production, the current state of the news business and how we decide what stories to report, etc. She also discussed with the class her path to radio news from a college major in journalism.

Also on March 19, 2009, our Director of News & Public Affairs hosted two students from Southern Maine Community College in a job shadow of his duties with radio, television, and new media production as the primary focus. This job shadow represented the Augusta / Lewiston, Bangor and Portland SEUs.

On March 20, 2009, our Director of News & Public Affairs spoke to 13 students in broadcasting at the SALT Institute for Documentary Studies about the process of radio and television news and public affairs story development. This event represented the Augusta / Lewiston, Bangor and Portland SEUs.

Our "Morning Edition" Producer hosted a student from Casco Bay High School in a week-long job shadow / informal internship focused on radio news production in March 2009. The student observed radio operations, then reported, edited and produced a story for air. This job shadow / informal internship represented the Bangor and Portland SEUs.

On May 9, 2009, our Media Production Services Manager hosted a student and teacher from the Islesboro Central School in a day-long job shadow of his duties including a tour of the Bangor facility. This activity represented the Augusta / Lewiston and Bangor SEUs.

On June 8, 2009, our Senior Vice President and Chief Technology Officer along with our Broadcast Facilities Manager provided a facility tour to 80 third, fourth and fifth grades from Corinth Elementary School. The tour lasted about two hours and focused on broadcast operations and the equipment, technology and jobs required. This tour represented the Augusta / Lewiston, Bangor and Portland SEUs.

Representing the Augusta / Lewiston and Bangor SEUs our Media Production Services Manager hosted a student from Holy Cross on June 15, 2009 in a videotaping of her planned speech for a national speech contest introducing her to techniques in television production as well as acquainting her with jobs and careers in television.

On November 4, 2009 our "Morning Edition" Producer hosted a tour of the facility by 10 SALT Institute for Documentary Studies focusing on audio production. This activity represented the Bangor and Portland SEUs.

On November 5, 2009, representing the Bangor and Portland SEUs, our "Morning Edition" Producer hosted a tour of 20 journalism students from the New England School of Communications focusing on audio production.

Also, on November 5, 2009 our Senior Vice President and Chief Technology Officer hosted seven New England School of Communications students in a training and demonstration of remote wiring and troubleshooting. This activity represented the Augusta / Lewiston, Bangor and Portland SEUs.

Training to management level personnel as to methods of ensuring equal employment opportunity and preventing discrimination.

MPBN's Director of Human Resources routinely reviews a corporate document of tips on how to conduct fair and consistent interviews and, most importantly, a list of 17 topic areas to avoid that could lead to discrimination. This review is done on a one-to-one basis with each hiring manager.
