

QUEST Bioinvasion

If you enjoyed viewing QUEST Bioinvasion, you may want to participate in activities and events or look for further information about our surroundings in northern New England.

Maine Volunteer Lake Monitoring Program

■ Every summer, hundreds of certified volunteer lake monitors throughout the state collect valuable scientific data. They come from all walks of life, are of all ages, and their mission is to provide protection for the nearly 6,000 lakes in Maine. If you have a willingness to learn, a commitment to spend about 24 hours a year on a lake, and have access to a boat – you are the perfect candidate.

When: Summer, 2005
