MPBN Announces Winners of 2013 Life is Better with MPBN Contest

(Bangor/Portland/Lewiston) – The Maine Public Broadcasting Network announced the winners of the 2013 Life is Better with MPBN Contest. Amanda Berry of Freeport was randomly selected as the grand prize winner and was awarded a 2013 Nissan Altima 2.5 S provided by Lee Auto. Thomas Tietenberg of Waterville, Jeanette Steinke of Plainfield WI, Kathryn Macleod of Falmouth, Bernie Horowitz of Portland, William Bridgham of Durham, and Mary Beth Teas of Brunswick each won Kindle Paperwhite 3Gs.

“Life is Better with MPBN is an outstanding opportunity to create excitement for our listeners and viewers and help support MPBN with the chance of winning a great reward in the process,” noted Mark Vogelzang, MPBN’s President and CEO. “We created a buzz around the state and that certainly doesn’t happen without the very generous support of Adam Lee and Lee Auto who provided us with the grand prize!”

The contest began on May 1, 2013, and concluded on June 30, 2013. According to the terms of the contest, anyone who made a donation to MPBN in any amount during this period was entered into the prize drawing. As required by law, the contest was also open to anyone regardless of whether a donation was made, and thousands of entries were mailed in to MPBN or filled out at Lee Auto locations throughout the state to be included in the drawing.

Berry, an existing MPBN Evergreen Friend and thus automatically entered into the contest, was very excited to get the call and hear about her prize. "It really pays to be an Evergreen Member!" stated Berry when given the keys to the new Nissan.
